A Bidder may propose the substitution of items equaling or bettering the standards of those specified, upon submission to the ENGINEER, not less than 10 days (7 if informal) prior to the date for receipt of Bids, of sufficient information to evaluate the substitute, including its name, manufacturer, drawings, cut-sheets, performance, test data, and any other information required by the ENGINEER for evaluation of the proposed substitute. b. Approval, if granted, by the ENGINEER of a proposed substitute shall be in the form of an Addendum issued to all prospective bidders. Whenever a bidder proposes to furnish an approved substitute, it shall be understood that it will be the bidder's sole responsibility making all adjustments to accommodate the substitute including, but not limited to, structural elements, auxiliary equipment, electrical, plumbing, mechanical and control systems, which are required to provide a complete and satisfactory operating installation of the substitute item. Approval of the substitute item shall be in the sole discretion of the ENGINEER upon its finding that it equals or betters the specified item in all dimensional, electrical and other design criteria as well as required operating performance characteristics. Failure of the ENGINEER to complete the review and evaluation of a proposed substitute in time to issue an addendum prior to the receipt of Bids shall not authorize any Bidder to include such substitute in a Bid nor shall it be the basis of a protest by a Bidder. c. No substitute or "or equal" item which has not been approved by addendum issued to all bidders shall be included in the proposal.
