14 RFP Requirements
1. Introduction The Buyer, Jacksonville ("Buyer") intends to hire an individual or firm ("Contractor") to provide the services described in this Request for Proposal ("RFP"). Persons interested in submitting a response to this RFP (a "Response") should carefully review this RFP for instructions on how to request, submit, and obtain Buyer's selection. 2. Questions and Requests for Amendment to RFP. If a Contractor (i) has questions about the RFP, (ii) finds discrepancies, omissions or ambiguities in the RFP, or (iii) believes any term or condition of the RFP is unreasonable, Contractor should submit a request to Buyer. All of the request should reference the RFP section at issue and include any specific language that Contractor recommends using. All requests for amendment must be submitted in writing (via email is acceptable) to the Procurement Analyst specified in the RFP. Be received by the Procuring Analyst (Analyst) at least ten (10) calendar days before the Response Due Date. Questions and requests for amendments directed to the Analyst or to any other Buyer personnel shall not constitute a change to the RFP. Only a RFP amendment or interpretation or change will be considered evidence that Contractor understands and agrees to the provisions of the RFP. The posting of a written amendment is the only official method whereby interpretation, clarification, or additional information will be given by Buyer prior to the opening of Responses. Any other interpretation, clarification, change or information will have no legal effect. Buyer reserves the right to amend, cancel or reissue the RFP at any time. Buyer may, in its sole discretion, request additional information about any and all Statement of Qualifications submitted in response to RFP. They may also issue addenda to this RFP which will be sent to each Supplier who received this RFP. This includes the right to change the Response Due Date or any other deadline or date. Notice of all amendments and cancellations will be posted on Buyer's website (please contact the Analyst if you are uncertain of the website address or if you experience problems accessing it). Contractor is responsible for monitoring Buyer's website for subsequent amendments. 3. Terms of Agreement. After award to the successful Contractor, Buyer and Contractor will promptly enter into a written agreement (the "Contract") incorporating the terms of the RFP, the successful Response, and other terms and conditions Buyer deems appropriate. Buyer will not, to the extent the Response contains exceptions to or modifications of the RFP, such exceptions or modifications are stricken unless Buyer affirmatively accepts the exceptions or modifications in the Contract. The Contract will be substantially in the form of the Contract attached to the RFP. Buyer will not be obligated to pay Contractor for the RFP services until the Contract is signed by both parties. Buyer retains the right to reject all bids and/or amend its notice of award at any time prior to the full execution of the Contract. If the successful Contractor fails to perform the Services as agreed, Buyer reserves the right to (i) issue a new solicitation for the Services, (ii) terminate the Contract for default in accordance with the terms and processes set forth herein; and/or (iii) take such other actions permitted by law. 4. Public Meetings and Special Accommodations. Any public meeting of Buyer's Procurement Analyst, Jacksonville Procurement Assets Committee or Technical Review Committee) shall be noticed on Buyer's website and shall comply with Florida's Open Meetings Laws. Please contact the Analyst if you are uncertain of Buyer's website address or if you experience problems accessing it. If you are requiring a special accommodation because of a disability, should contact the Analyst(identified in the Overview Section at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to the meeting. 5. Cost of Developing RFP Response. All costs related to preparing a Response to this RFP and any subsequent oral presentation are the sole responsibility of Contractor. Buyer assumes no liability for any costs incurred by Contractor throughout the entire selection process. 6. Response Ownership. All Responses, including attachments, supplementary materials, addenda, etc., shall become property of Buyer and shall not be returned to Contractor. Buyer will have the right to use any and all ideas or adaptation of ideas presented in any Response. Acceptance or rejection of a Response shall not affect this right. 7. Public Records Law, Process For Protecting Trade Secrets and Other Information. Article 1, Section 24, Florida Constitution, guarantees every person access to all public records, and Section 119.011, Florida Statutes, provides a broad definition of public records. As such, all responses to this RFP are subject to public inspection. In the event Contractor considers any portion of its Response to be exempt from disclosure under Florida law, Contractor must provide Buyer with a separate redacted copy of the Response and briefly describe in writing the grounds for claiming exemption, including the specific statute or other authority relatedto citation. Contractor shall be responsible for defending its determination that the redacted portions of its Response are confidential, trade secret or otherwise not subject to disclosure. Further, Contractor shall protect, defend, and indemnify Buyer for any costs or attorney fees arising from or relating to Contractor's determination that the redacted portions of its Response are confidential, trade secret or otherwise not subject to disclosure. If Contractor fails to submit a Redacted Copy with its Response, Buyer is authorized to produce the entire Response in answer to a public records request. In accordance with Section 119.0701, Florida Statutes, the Contractor shall: (a) Keep and maintain public records required by Buyer to perform the services; and (b) Upon request from Buyer's custodian of public records, provide Buyer with a copy of the requested records or allow records to be inspected or copied within a reasonable time at a cost that does not exceed the cost provided for in Chapter 119, Florida Statutes, or as otherwise provided by law; and (c) Ensure that public records that are exempt or confidential and exempt from public records disclosure requirements are not disclosed except as authorized by law for the duration of the Contract term and following completion of this Contract if Contractor does not transfer the records to Buyer; and (d) Upon completion of this Contract, transfer to Buyer at no cost, all public records in possession of Contractor or keep and maintain public records required by Buyer to perform the service. If Contractor transfers all public records to Buyer upon completion of this Contract, Contractor shall destroy any duplicate public records that are exempt or confidential and exempt from public records disclosure requirements. If Contractor keeps and maintains public records upon completion of this Contract, Contractor shall meet all applicable requirements for retaining public records. All records stored electronically must be provided to Buyer upon request in a format that is compatible with the information technology systems. The above requirements apply to a "Contractor" as defined in Section, 119.0701, Florida Statutes. IF CONTRACTOR HAS QUESTIONS REGARDING THE APPLICATION OF CHAPTER 119, FLORIDA STATUTES, TO THE CONTRACTOR'S DUTY TO PROVIDE PUBLIC RECORDS RELATING TO THIS CONTRACT, CONTACT THE BUYER'S CUSTODIAN OF PUBLIC RECORDS AT 904-255-5086, OR BY EMAIL AT PURCHASE@COJ.NET, JACKSONVILLE, PUBLIC RECORDS REQUEST, 214 N. HOGAN STREET, SUITE 1100, JACKSONVILLE, FLORIDA 32202. 8. Multiple Responses from Same Contractor. No Contractor, or any affiliated companies, parent or subsidiaries, partnership, cooperation or association under the same or different names is not permitted. Reasonable grounds for believing that a Contractor is involved in more than one Response for the same work will be cause for rejection of all Responses in which the Contractor is interested in the market. Any or all Responses will be rejected if there is reason to believe that collusion exists between Contractors. Responses in which the prices obviously are unbalanced will be grounds for rejection. 9. Discriminatory Vendors. A person or affiliate placed on the State of Florida convicted vendor list pursuant to Section 287.133, Florida Statutes, following a conviction for a public entity crime may not do any of the following for a period of 36 months from the date of being placed on the convicted vendor list: submit a bid on a contract to provide any goods or services to a public entity; submit a bid on a contract with a public entity for the construction or repair of a public building or public work; bid on leases of real property to a public entity; be awarded or perform work as a contractor, supplier, subcontractor, or consultant under a contract with any public entity; and transact business with any public entity in excess of the threshold amount provided in Section 287.017, Florida Statutes. 10. Discriminatory Vendor List. An entity or affiliate placed on the State of Florida discriminatory vendor list pursuant to Section 287.134, Florida Statutes, may not: submit a bid on a contract to provide any goods or services to a public entity; submit a bid on a contract with a public entity for the construction or repair of a public building or public work; submit bids on leases of real property to a public entity; be awarded or perform work as a contractor, supplier, subcontractor, or consultant under a contract with any public entity; or transact business with any public entity. 11. Contractor Representations. In submitting a Response, Contractor understands, represents, and acknowledges the following (If Contractor cannot so certify to any of following, Contractor shall submit with its Response a written explanation of reasons why it cannot): Contractor currently has no delinquent obligations to the Buyer of Jacksonville or any of its independent agencies. The Response is submitted in good faith and without any prior or future consultation or agreement with any other entity or person regarding prices. To the best of the knowledge of the person signing the Response, neither the Contractor, its affiliates, subsidiaries, owners, partners, principals or officers is currently under investigation by any governmental authority and has not been in collusion with respect to bidding on any public contract. is currently under suspension or debarment by any governmental authority in the United States. has within the preceding three-year period been convicted of or had a civil judgment rendered against it, or is presently indicted for or otherwise criminally or civilly charged, in connection with (i) obtaining, attempting to obtain, or performing a federal, state, or local government transaction or public contract, which indicates a lack of business integrity or business ethics, or (ii) commission of embezzlement, theft, forgery, bribery, falsification or destruction of records, making false statements, or receiving stolen property, or has within the preceding three-year period had one or more public transactions (federal government contracts terminated for cause or default.
