MEMORANDUM

DATE: April 22, 2026

TO: Dustin Freeman, Chief of Procurement
Finance and Administration Department

THRU: Travis Jeffrey
Chief, Housing & Community Development Division

FROM: Robert Ownby, Housing Property Administrator
Neighborhoods Department

SUBJECT: Single Response – RFP 17571-26 Foreclosure Intervention Program

This letter responds to the requirement that solicitations for professional services and professional design services must receive no fewer than three (3) supplier responses or otherwise be re-solicited unless it is determined that no advantage would be gained by doing so.

In this instance, RFP 17571-26 resulted in a single response. The Housing and Community Development Division (HCDD) has evaluated this outcome and determined that proceeding with the single responsive proposal is both reasonable and in the best interest of the program.

There is a limited pool of HUD-certified Housing Counselors within Duval County qualified to provide these specialized services. This constraint significantly reduces the likelihood of obtaining additional responses through re-solicitation. Furthermore, the proposed pricing is consistent with current contracted rates, indicating that costs are fair and aligned with market conditions.

HCDD is also concerned that reissuing the RFP could result in a disruption of program services. Any lapse in service would negatively impact program continuity and the individuals who depend on these services.

Based on these considerations, it is determined that re-solicitation would not provide a measurable advantage and may introduce unnecessary risk to service delivery. Therefore, proceeding with the current proposal is recommended.

Please do not hesitate to contact me at 255-8283 or rownby@coj.net if you have any questions.

Thank you for considering this request.

General Requirements
Scope of Services: The Housing and Community Development and The Procurement of the City of Jacksonville, Florida is currently accepting bids to obtain vendor(s) of supply for the item(s) or service(s) as outlined in the bid documents provided.		a. Acknowledge
City funds will be provided to a qualified bidn (Contractor) to assist eligible homeowners (Applicant") with retaining their home and preventing foreclosure action of the first or second mortgage, including mortgage payments and delinquent tax sales. These funds are to assist individuals who are in default. Default means a claim by a mortgagee, or other lien holder, that the mortgagor has not complied with the terms of the mortgage on the property or other lien, and that the mortgagee has the right to foreclose. Clients must be the primaryfinancial obligors of the homeowners. The selected Contractor will be required to provide the following services: A. Counseling Scope of Services 1. Basic Counseling/Financial Management Education: Basic counseling will include client intake, verification of a homeowner's budget and financial information and documentation of such, determination of eligibility for program, determination of foreclosure options, determination of the best course of action for the homeowner, preparation of an action plan, and initiation of delinquency resolution negotiations with the lender. A Budget, Credit and Debt Reduction course is required for clients with a budget. The Budget and Credit course will provide homeowners with the skills and knowledge necessary to ameliorate the risk of re-default or avoid problems in the future. This service may be provided in a one-onume setcoom or in a group and may include in-person,telephonic,internet or mail. The Contractor must certify that each client has completed this course prior to receiving funds. For clients coming into the City of Jacksonville FIP that have already received these services through any other related foreclosure prevention program, the Contractor may bill for any additional counseling intervention that was not provided and paid for by the previous program. (See Level I Services as referenced within this RFP's Price Sheet, Schedule of Proposed Administrative Pricesfilters). 2. Extended Counseling: Extended counseling will include ongoing support through direct intervention the process of a trial loan modification, formal loan modification or other resolution as a homeowner receives a loan. Extended counseling services will be provided and services reimbursed according to a specific set of milestones. For example, this will include: a. Counseling services to a homeowner during a trial loan modification; b. Counseling services to a homeowner during a formal loan modification; and/or c. Counseling services in a situation where a homeowner does not accept a modification plan because it does not provide enough relief for them to keep their home, but the client has decided that foreclosure is inevitable and must go through disposition of their home. (See Level II Services as referenced within the RFP's Price Sheet, Schedule of Proposed Administrative PricesFilters). 3. Ongoing File Maintenance and Document Management: Client files shall be maintained for five (5) years past the date of resolution and provided to the HCDD as a complete digital file for each client serviced. This includes all documents we receive, mortgage and other notarized documents and will be required to be maintained in a secure manner. 4. Adherence with Compliance Monitoring requirements: The Contractor shall be required to provide any information, data or documentation requested by the HCDD related to evaluating compliance with program requirements. 5. Reporting: The Contractor shall be required to submit to the HCDD all required reports according to timeframes established within the Contract. These reports may include, but are not limited to, number of clients served, types of services provided, demographic data on clients, and other data. B. Contractor Objective Requirements 1. Outreach and Marketing: The Contractor must make reasonable efforts to reach clients who need its services, including, but not limited to, homeowners and homeowners in target areas identified by the HCDD. This may be done in a variety of ways: advertising, contact with social agencies, and partnering with other entities within a service area. The Contractor should implement an outreach plan and provide a copy to the HCDD. Contractor must make sure that any information disseminated in any format is not false or misleading. 2. Recordkeeping: The Contractor must use digital client management software to track client data, including, at a minimum, in an electronic format that is acceptable to the HCDD. 3. File Retention: Files must be maintained in a manner that is accessible. Files must be kept for five years. Paper documentation must be kept in secured file cabinets. Scanned or electronically stored documents must be safeguarded in a fashion that securely maintains client privacy. Files must be retained for a minimum of five years, or longer if required by contract, if there is an audit, investigation or litigation in progress. 4. Certification: All counselors and applicable administrative, must be trained to provide services under this Contract and certified as a HUD Counselor as a minimum requirement. Additional certifications in Foreclosure Intervention and Default counsels by Neighborhood Housing and Mortgage Services or Credit Counseling or other approved certification providers is a plus and each counselor/administrate must provide proof of certification. Certification must be maintained throughout the duration of the Contractor participation in the HCDD FIP. 5. Financial Responsibility: All administrative fees, committed and expended through FIP will be on a reimbursement basis, only upon closing of a client's case file. All fees that are a part of a loan modification or refinance will be paid directly to the lender upon submittal of loan modification or refinance acceptance letter, through the Contractor. 6. Compliance: No individual, corporation, general partnership, limited partnership, limited liability partnership, joint venture, business trust, public benefit corporation, nonprofit entity, Community Housing Development Organization, public or governmental agency, or consortium of any of the aforementioned entities ("Entity") shall be eligible to apply for an award if one or more of the following conditions exists at the time the application is submitted: a.
