6. RFP Requirements
1. Introduction The City of Jacksonville ("Buyer") intends to hire an individual or firm ("Contractor") to provide the services described in this Request for Proposal ("RFP"). Persons interested in submitting a response to this RFP ("Response") should carefully review this RFP for instructions on how to respond and for the applicable contractual terms. 2. Questions and Requests for Amendment to RFP. If a potential Contractor discovers any defect, flaw, discrepancies, omissions or ambiguities in the RFP, or (iii) believes any term or condition of the RFP is unreasonable, Contractor should request an amendment to the RFP. The request should reference the RFP section at issue and include any specific language that Contractor recommends using. All requests for amendment must be submitted in writing (via the iCloud Procurement System) and, unless otherwise specified in the RFP, be received by the Purchasing Analyst at least five (5) business days prior to the Response Due Date. Questions and requests for amendments directed to the Analyst or to any other Buyer personnel shall not constitute a formal protest of the RFP. Failure to request an interpretation or change will be construed to mean that Contractor understands and agrees to the provisions of the RFP. The posting of a written amendment is the only official method by which interpretations, clarifications, changes or additional information will be given by Buyer prior to the Response Due Date. Any other interpretation, clarification, change or information will have no legal effect. Buyer reserves the right to amend, cancel or reissue the RFP at its discretion. Buyer reserves the right to request or obtain additional information from any Contractor or Qualifications submitted in response to RFP. They may also issue addenda to this RFP which will be sent to each Supplier who received this RFP. This includes the right to change the Response Due Date and the Contract award date. If Buyer has established a website for this RFP and posted on Buyer's website (please contact the Analyst if you are uncertain of the website address or if you experience problems accessing it), Contractor is responsible for monitoring this website for new or changing information. 3. Terms of Agreement. After award to the successful Contractor, Buyer and Contractor will promptly enter into a written agreement (the "Contract") incorporating the terms of the RFP, the successful Response, and other terms and conditions that Buyer determines in its sole discretion. To the extent the Response contains exceptions to or modifications of the RFP, such exceptions or modifications are stricken unless Buyer affirmatively accepts the exceptions or modifications in the Contract. The Contract shall prevail over the Response and the RFP in the event of a conflict. Buyer will not be obligated to pay Contractor for the RFP services until the Contract is signed by both parties. Buyer retains the right to reject all bids and/or amend its notice of award at any time prior to the full execution of the Contract. If the successful Contractor fails to perform the Services as agreed, Buyer reserves the right to (i) issue a new solicitation for the Services, (ii) reopen the RFP for the purpose of awarding a second contract to another Contractor, (iii) terminate the Contract for cause in accordance with both herein, and/or (iv) take such other actions permitted by law. 4. Public Meetings and Special Accommodations. Any meetings of the RFP evaluation committee (i.e., the Jacksonville Procurement Awards Committee or Technical Review Committee) shall be noticed on Buyer's website and shall comply with Florida's Open Meetings Laws. Please contact the Analyst if you need a special accommodation or if you experience problems accessing it. Persons requiring a special accommodation because of a disability should contact the Analystidentified in the Overview Section at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to the meeting. 5. Cost of Developing RFP Response. All costs related to the preparation of RFP Responses and any related activities are the sole responsibility of Contractor. Buyer assumes no liability for any costs incurred by Contractors throughout the solicitation process. 6. Response Ownership. All Responses, including attachments, supplementary materials, addenda, etc., shall become property of Buyer and shall not be returned to Contractor. Buyer will have the right to use any and all ideas or adaptation of ideas presented in any Response.		a. Acknowledge	a. Acknowledge	a. Acknowledge
