1. Introduction The City of Jacksonville ("Buyer") intends to hire an individual or firm ("Contractor") to provide the services described in this Request for Proposal ("RFP"). Prior to preparing and submitting a response to this RFP or ("Response") carefully review this RFP for instructions on how to respond and for the applicable contractual terms. 2. Questions and Requests for Amendment to RFP. If a potential Contractor discerns any (a) ambiguity, discrepancies, omissions or ambiguities in the RFP, or (b) between any term or condition of the RFP is unreasonable, Contractor should request an amendment to the RFP. The request should reference the RFP section at issue and include any specific language that Contractor recommends series. All requests for amendment must be submitted in writing into the (Cloud Procurement System) and, unless otherwise specified in the RFP, be received by the Purchasing Analyst at least five (5) business days prior to the Response Due Date. Questions and requests for amendments directed to the Analyst or to any other Buyer personnel shall not constitute a formal protest of the RFP. Failure to request an interpretation or change will be considered evidence that Contractor understands and agrees to the provisions of the RFP. The posting of a written amendment is the only official method by which interpretations, clarifications, changes or additional information will be given by Buyer prior to the Response Due Date. Any other interpretation, clarification, change or information will have no legal effect. Buyer reserves the right to amend, cancel or reissue the RFP at its discretion. Buyer reserves the right to request or obtain additional information about any and all Statement of Qualifications and supporting documents. Buyer will also issue addenda to this RFP which will be sent to each Supplier who received this RFP. This includes the right to change the Response Due Date and the Contract award date. Notice of all amendments and cancellations will be posted on Buyer's website at www.coj.net. Buyer is not responsible for any incorrect URL address or if you experience problems accessing it. Contractor is responsible for monitoring this website for new or changing information. 3. Terms of Agreement. After award to the successful Contractor, Buyer and Contractor will execute a formal written agreement (the "Contract") incorporating the terms of the RFP, the successful Response, and other terms and conditions as may be agreed to between the parties. To the extent the Response contains exceptions to or modifications of the RFP, such exceptions or modifications are void unless Buyer affirmatively accepts the exceptions or modifications in the Contract. The Contract will be substantially in the form set forth in or attachment to the RFP. Buyer will not be obligated to pay Contractor for the services until the Contract is fully executed. Notwithstanding Buyer retains the right to reject all bids and/or amend its notice of award at any time prior to the full execution of the Contract. If the successful Contractor fails to perform the Services as agreed, Buyer reserves the right to (i) issue a new solicitation for the Services, (ii) reopen the RFP for the purpose of awarding a second contract to another Contractor in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Contract, and/or (iii) take such other actions permitted by law. 4. Public Meetings and Special Accommodations. Any meetings of the RFP evaluation committee (i.e., the Jacksonville Procurement Awards Committee or Technical Review Committee) will be conducted in accordance with or shall comply with Florida's Open Meetings Laws. Please contact the Analyst if you are uncertain of Buyer's website address or if you experience problems accessing it. Persons requiring a special accommodation because of a disability should notify the Analyst in writing at least five (5) Business Days at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to the meeting. 5. Cost of Dev-eloping RFP Response. All costs related to the preparation of RFP Responses and any related activities are the sole responsibility of Contractor. Buyer assumes no liability for any costs incurred by Contractors throughout the entire selection process. 6. Response Ownership. All Responses, including attachments, supplementary materials, addenda, etc., shall become property of Buyer and shall not be returned to Contractor. Buyer shall have the right to use any idea or idea in adaptation of ideas presented in any Response. Acceptance or rejection of a Response shall not affect this right. 7. Public Records Law; Process For Protecting Trade Secrets. Section 119 of the Florida Statutes, and the Florida Constitution, guarantees every person access to all public records. and Section 119.011, Florida Statutes, provides a broad definition of public records. As such, all responses to the RFP are public records unless exempt by law. If Contractor believes portions of its Response are exempt from disclosure under Florida law, Contractor must provide Buyer with a separate redacted copy of the Response and briefly describe in writing the grounds for claiming exemption from the public records law, including the specific statutory exemption. Failure to do so shall serve as a determining by determination that the redacted portions of its Response are confidential, trade secret or otherwise not subject to disclosure. Further, Contractor shall protect, defend, and indemnify Buyer for any and all claims arising or resulting from Contractor's determination that the redacted portions of its Response are confidential, trade secret or otherwise not subject to disclosure.
