Costs. Buyer shall not be responsible for any costs related to the preparation of RFP Responses and any related activities are the sole responsibility of Contractor. Buyer assumes no liability for any costs incurred by Contractors throughout the entire selection process. 6. Ownership of Materials. All Responses, including attachments, supplementary materials, addenda, etc., shall become property of Buyer and shall not be returned to Contractor. Buyer will have the right to use any and all ideas or adaptation of ideas presented in any Response. Acceptance or rejection of a Response shall not affect this right. 7. Public Records Law. Process For Protecting Trade Secrets and Other Information. Article 1, Section 24, Florida Constitution, guarantees every person access to all public records. Section 119.011, Florida Statutes, provides a broad definition of public records. As such, all responses to the RFP are public records unless exempt by law. If Contractor concludes any portion of its Response to be exempt from disclosure under Florida law, Contractor must identify the specific portions of its Response to be exempt and briefly describe in writing the grounds for claiming exemption from the public records law, including the specific statutory citation. Contractor cannot designate all its Response as exempt. Determination that all or substantial portions of its Response are confidential, trade secret or otherwise not subject to disclosure. Further, Contractor shall protect, defend, and indemnify Buyer for any and all claims arising from or relating to Contractor's determination that the redacted portions of its Response are confidential, trade secret or otherwise not subject to disclosure. If Contractor fails to submit a Redacted Copy with its Response, Buyer is authorized to produce the entire Response in answer to a public records request. In accordance with Section 119.0701, Florida Statutes, the Contractor shall: (a) Keep and maintain public records required by Buyer to perform the services; and (b) Upon request from Buyer's custodian of public records, provide Buyer with a copy of the requested records or allow the records to be inspected or copied within a reasonable time at a cost that does not exceed the cost provided for in Chapter 119, Florida Statutes, or as otherwise provided by law; and (c) Ensure that public records that are exempt or confidential and exempt from public records disclosure requirements are not disclosed except as authorized by law for the duration of the Contract term and following completion of this Contract if Contractor does not transfer the records to Buyer; and (d) Upon completion of the Contract, transfer to Buyer at no cost, all public records in possession of Contractor or keep and maintain public records required by Buyer to perform the service. If Contractor transfers all public records to Buyer upon completion of the Contract, Contractor shall destroy any duplicate public records that are exempt or confidential and exempt from public records disclosure requirements. If Contractor keeps and maintains public records upon completion of the Contract, Contractor shall meet all applicable requirements for retaining public records. All		a. Acknowledge				a. Entrepreneurship Education and Workforce Development Experience

BMEL brings more than 13 years of proven excellence in Program Management for Entrepreneurship Education and Workforce Development Centers, delivering measurable economic impact and transformational outcomes for participants and communities.

Our record includes successfully managing, staffing, and operating the Jacksonville Urban League Entrepreneurship Center (JULEC) for over 13 years and, since September 2025, expertly managing the JSEB Entrepreneurship and Workforce Development (JSEB EWD) Centers.

BMEL's Proven Success Leading the JULEC

Under BMEL's leadership, the JULEC has delivered measurable community-level impact and strengthened the region's small-business ecosystem. Through a comprehensive blend of group training, one-on-one counseling, and resource navigation, the JULEC has supported more than 650 emerging and established entrepreneurs. BMEL's leadership has produced:

- Entrepreneurs Trained: Developed workshop series and cohort-based programs that have equipped many clients with practical business skills.
- Clients Counseled: Conducted extensive individualized coaching sessions offering strategic guidance, business planning support, and operational problem-solving.
- New Businesses Launched: Produced a strong pipeline of successful business launches, directly tied to center programming and mentorship.
- Certifications Obtained: Provided assistance that has enabled entrepreneurs to secure key certifications, including JSEB, minority-owned, women-owned, and veteran-owned business certifications, thereby expanding their access to contracting and procurement opportunities.
- Loan Applications Processed: Provided hands-on support for clients preparing complete, lender-ready applications, resulting in more than $4.8 million in business loans.

Docusign Envelope ID: 8BF02794-57E4-478A-874A-B6307A231AF1

- Grants Awarded: Provided guidance that has helped entrepreneurs secure more than $400,000 in national grant funding to drive business growth.

BMEL's Proven Success Managing the JSEB EWD Centers

Since BMEL began managing the JSEB EWD Centers in September 2025, it has had the following impact:

1. Community Engagement & Visitor Impact
   - Effectively served more than 1,100 visitors.
   - Successfully served more than 520 small businesses.
   - Assisted more than 200 clients in workforce development.
   - Coordinated workshops for more than 250 participants.

2. Business Development Outcomes
   - Helped create 5 new businesses.
   - Provided one-on-one counseling to more than 40 businesses.
   - Provided more than 55 hours of one-on-one counseling to small-business owners.
   - Held more than 45 one-on-one business counseling sessions.
   - Hosted more than 48 business workshops, training sessions, and seminars.

3. JSEB Program Support
   - Leads monthly JSEB For-Profit Certification Workshops on behalf of the JSEB Department.
   - Completed more than 20 JSEB Certification applications for JSEB EWD visitors.
   - Attended more than 12 outreach meetings to increase JSEB awareness among small businesses in the community.

4. Workforce Development Achievements
   - Secured 13 job placements for JSEB EWD Workforce Development clients.
   - Identified 4 new employment opportunities for JSEB EWD Workforce Development clients.

Docusign Envelope ID: 8BF02794-57E4-478A-874A-B6307A231AF1

5. Economic & Community Impact
   - Strengthened partnerships with community organizations, chambers of commerce, and educational institutions.
   - Increased access to entrepreneurial and workforce resources in underserved areas.

BMEL's performance reflects a consistent commitment to economic empowerment, operational excellence, and measurable outcomes, thereby strengthening Jacksonville's entrepreneurial and workforce landscape.

Conclusion

Your Trusted Partner for Transformational Impact

BMEL is well-positioned to continue delivering outstanding results in support of the JSEB EWD goals. Our proven approach, strong track record, and commitment to measurable outcomes make us an ideal partner for JSEB EWD to advance economic growth, business development, and workforce preparedness.

Approach and Innovation

BMEL Business Solutions LLC (BMEL) has employed a structured, data-driven, and community-centered approach to deliver entrepreneurship education and workforce development programs that support the objectives of the JSEB Entrepreneurship Education and Workforce Development Centers (JSEB EWD). BMEL's strategy integrates proven program management practices, innovative delivery methods, and active stakeholder engagement to achieve measurable results and long-term impact.

Program Strategy and Implementation Approach

BMEL's approach aims to support participants across the full spectrum of business and workforce preparation, ensuring that training delivers tangible, real-world results. Its strategy comprises the following key elements:

1. Participant-Centered Program Design

BMEL designs programs responsive to the needs of aspiring entrepreneurs, early-stage businesses, and workforce participants. Through intake assessments and baseline evaluations, BMEL tailors instruction and technical assistance to participants' experience levels, industry interests, and readiness. This approach increases engagement, improves completion rates, and supports equitable access to services.

Docusign Envelope ID: 8BF02794-57E4-478A-874A-B6307A231AF1

2. Structured, Outcome-Driven Curriculum

BMEL delivers a standardized, yet flexible curriculum aligned with JSEB EWD priorities and local economic conditions. Our program modules include:

- Business formation, compliance, and operational readiness.
- Fiscal management, pricing, and cash flow fundamentals.
- Marketing, customer development, and procurement readiness.
- Workforce readiness, soft skills, and career navigation.

Each module includes defined learning objectives, applied exercises, and performance milestones to ensure knowledge transfer and accountability.

Innovative Delivery Methods

BMEL employs innovative strategies to enhance program effectiveness and improve participants' outcomes.

1. Hybrid and Flexible Learning Models

BMEL uses a hybrid delivery model that combines in-person workshops, virtual instruction, and one-on-one coaching to increase accessibility for participants and help them overcome barriers related to work, family, or transportation. This flexibility improves attendance and retention while maintaining program rigor.

2. Applied Learning and Technical Assistance

BMEL emphasizes practical learning through business labs, case studies, and real-time problem-solving. Participants receive personalized coaching to help them apply concepts directly to their business or career goals, thereby improving their preparedness and outcomes.

Docusign Envelope ID: 8BF02794-57E4-478A-874A-B6307A231AF1

3. Cohort-Based Learning with Peer Accountability

Participants progress through the program in cohorts, fostering peer support, accountability, and collaboration. This model strengthens engagement and builds lasting professional networks among small-business owners and job seekers.

Business Solutions and Employer Engagement

BMEL's strategy links education to opportunities by actively engaging employers, small businesses, and economic partners. BMEL supports the following:

- Guest instruction and mentorship from local business leaders.
- Exposure to industry, best practices, and employer expectations.
- Connections to workforce pipelines, procurement opportunities, and support services.

This ecosystem-based model ensures participants are prepared to meet market demands and to access real economic opportunities in Jacksonville.

Performance Management and Continuous Improvement

BMEL uses a data-driven performance management system to track progress and ensure program effectiveness. Key elements include:

- Participant enrollment, attendance, and completion tracking.
- Pre- and post-assessments to measure skill gains.
- Outcome tracking for business launches, employment placement, and credential attainment.

Program data is regularly reviewed to identify trends, address gaps, and improve delivery. This ongoing process helps ensure JSEB reporting compliance and strengthens long-term impact.

Docusign Envelope ID: 8BF02794-57E4-478A-874A-B6307A231AF1

Equity-Focused and Community-Responsive Innovation

BMEL's approach demonstrates an understanding of the challenges small businesses and workforce participants in underserved communities face. Innovation is integrated into BMEL's approach:

- Designs programming responsive to cultural differences.
- Reduces participation barriers through flexible scheduling and delivery options.
- Builds trust through community partnerships and consistent engagement.

This ensures that programs are not only effective but also inclusive and sustainable.

Conclusion

BMEL offers a comprehensive, innovative, and purposeful approach to implementing the proposed JSEB EWD program strategy. By integrating structured curriculum delivery, creative teaching methods, employer engagement, and performance monitoring, BMEL is well-positioned to continue supporting the JSEB's goals of expanding small businesses, strengthening workforce readiness, and advancing inclusive economic growth.

- Provides weekly activity reports for the JSEB EWD centers.

Docusign Envelope ID: 8BF02794-57E4-478A-874A-B6307A231AF1

- Ensures compliance with all contractual obligations, policies, and funding requirements.
- Develops, monitors, and manages the JULEC Annual Budget.

Conclusion

BMEL has a proven record of staffing, managing, and operating the JULEC and the JSEB EWD Centers. This experience makes BMEL well-qualified to continue delivering the entrepreneurship education and workforce development services outlined in the JSEB EWD RFP at a high level of quality. BMEL's strengths in operational management, stakeholder engagement, performance measurement, and fiscal oversight ensure reliable program delivery, accountability, and measurable results for entrepreneurs and job seekers. With extensive experience, established partnerships, and a data-driven approach, BMEL is well-positioned as a dependable partner to promote inclusive economic growth and support the JSEB EWD goals.

Subject: RE: Docusign for Evaluation Committee Conflict of Interest Form - RFP 17470-26 JSEB Entrepreneurship Education and Workforce Development Center

Ruth,

Haggerty Strategic Solutions is fine as they have met the JSEB requirement. Peoplyst is not a JSEB and therefore does not meet the JSEB requirement. All other minimum requirements for the remaining suppliers are fine.

Peoplyst should be disqualified for not meeting the JSEB requirement.

Thank you,
