Hi Marilyn- Yes, I understand your calculation and am okay with it. Now that I understand the tabulation sheet better I would have reduced the percentages significantly. Am I still allowed to do that or is it too late? Thanks-Mike

Hello,
I had to make a correction to your bid on lump sum bid number 2 on your bid that was submitted your percentage for (12 Month Maintenance/Warranty) was at 100% on B2.3 and B2.6, and somehow I gave you the wrong information before here your corrected total should be and is $18,967,329.20 for this group not the what I originally provided you ,of $15,648,214.80 because this was going off of 20% percent not 100% which you submitted. Please make sure you're okay with the correction for this group.

Thank you
