Dear Mr. Freeman:

As Mayor of the Town of Baldwin, I would like to make an offer to purchase the 2012 Chevrolet C2500, Property Number 4965-30 for the Town.

I would like to make this offer of $9,000.00 in accordance with City of Jacksonville Ordinance Code 122.813 paragraph (a) subparagraph (2) "The Chief of Procurement shall notify the Second, Third, Fourth and Fifth Urban Service Districts and Baker, Bradford, Clay, Columbia, Flagler, Nassau, St. Johns and Union Counties and the various fire protection and emergency medical service agencies therein owned or operated by any of these counties or any municipality therein that a surplus vehicle or equipment is for sale, and he may negotiate with such of them that indicate an interest in purchasing the surplus vehicle or equipment, for the sale thereof at the best price he can obtain, but not less than the minimum price. In offering the surplus vehicle or equipment for sale, the Chief of procurement shall negotiate first with the Urban Service Districts and the counties contiguous to Duval County and the agencies and municipalities in those counties and, if he is unable to arrive at an agreement with any of them that express an interest in the surplus vehicle or equipment, then he shall negotiate with the remaining counties and the agencies and municipalities in those counties. In addition, sales may be made to volunteer fire protection and emergency medical service units with prior approval of the chief fire protection official or other similar applicable official of the governmental jurisdiction in which the appliable unit is located.

Please call me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Sean Lynch
Mayor
