General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. Information about developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) is at www.irs.gov/fw9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding? on page 2.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting? on page 2 for further information.

Re: Leeds' LCF3 Firearms and Toolmarks Comparison Microscope

Peter,

Leeds Forensic Systems, Inc. (Leeds) is the sole manufacturer, and U.S. distributor of the Leeds' LCF3 Firearms and Toolmarks Comparison Microscope. As its manufacturer and distributor, Leeds provides on-site installation, training, on-going technical support, and warranty service. In addition, Leeds' service department is available after the sale for scheduled maintenance and recertification.

Unique Specifications for Leeds Firearms and Tool Marks Comparison Microscope (LCF3) includes:

1. Leeds Precision Instruments, Inc. is an ISO/IEC 17025:2005 accredited facility for calibration, providing certificates of calibration for magnification matching and all measurement functions

2. The LCF3 with primary magnification range of 6x- 102x, has a zoom design providing 14 matched magnification positions. Of these 14 positions, 11 are between the magnifications of 6x- 56x.

3. Leeds Universal holder, designed to manipulate various size cartridge casings (from a 0.030" diameter wire to a 10-guage shot gun shell), requires no additional holder accessories.

4. The dividing line controller is easily adjusted with one hand, allowing the examiner to sweep the dividing line from right to left. Any line width is possible and images can be viewed at any percentage left, right or superimposed.

5. The LCF3 has unique stages that can be removed entirely from the system or swung aside. Specialized toolmark holders can be swapped out on the stages via the adjustment of the two simple thumb screws.

6. The LCF3 13 watt quad lamp fluorescent lighting system is a brighter lamp with 4 tube bulb system offering a unique rotatable hood that can be adjusted for maximum sample contrast.

7. The LCF3 utilizes a work surface that is machined from a single piece of billet aluminum, providing structural rigidity for an increased image quality by minimizing effects of vibration. This specialized table surface also provides a custom ergonomic shape and roll-off protection edge.

Sincerely,
Leeds Precision Instruments, Inc.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR LEEDS LCF, AND LCT MODELS

ORDER TERMS AND ACCEPTANCE: All customer orders are subject to these Terms and Conditions. Any inconsistent or conflicting terms in any purchase order, or other customer communication, cannot supersede or modify these Terms and Conditions, and are expressly rejected. All orders are subject to acceptance by Leeds and no provision of goods or services by Leeds will be deemed to be an acceptance of conflicting or inconsistent terms, or a waiver of these Terms and Conditions.

If the customer is the federal government, a state government, an agency of the federal or state government, or a political subdivision of any state, including, but not limited to, any county, city, or municipality, these Terms and Conditions shall be deemed to be subject to the mandated terms and conditions of any said government as they relate to government purchases.

Any transactions with Leeds for products or services will be governed by the laws of the State of Minnesota applicable to contracts and accepted and to be performed in Minnesota, without regard to applicable conflicts of law principles. Any action relating to any Leeds transactions, or these Terms and Conditions, will be brought in the applicable federal or state courts located in Hennepin County, Minnesota. By placing orders with Leeds, each customer irrevocably submits to the jurisdiction and venue of such courts.

SHIPPING: Leeds will attempt to honor special shipping requests, but reserves the right to select the carrier and manner of shipment. All shipping and delivery dates provided are estimates only, and customer will pay all applicable shipping and handling charges. All products are sold and shipped F.O.B. Plymouth, Minnesota, with title and risk of loss passing to customer upon tender to carrier.

PRICING AND PAYMENT: Prices and applicable discount terms are subject to change without notice, and orders will be filled and shipped at prices confirmed on acceptance. Except as otherwise quoted by Leeds, pricing is exclusive of all applicable sales, use or similar taxes, which will be the sole liability of customer. Unless customer has been granted credit terms, all customer purchases are payable prior to shipment, or on delivery for COD orders.

If credit is extended, customer agrees that Leeds will be entitled to collect interest on any late payments from date of delivery at the rate of 8% per annum, or the highest applicable interest rate allowed by law in the State of Minnesota, together with reasonable attorney's fees or other costs of collection. Leeds also reserves the right to amend or revoke customer credit terms at any time.

PRODUCT ACCEPTANCE: In case of any shortage or product damage, customers must notify delivering carrier and Leeds immediately, and must file a carrier claim within 10 days of receipt. Leeds will provide necessary supporting claim information and documentation on request. Leeds will use best efforts to expedite reorders for missing or damaged products, which will also remain subject to Leeds' Terms and Conditions.

RETURNS AND CANCELLATIONS: Unused and undamaged non-custom products are the only type of products that may be returned, provided that the customer has obtained a written return authorization code from Leeds. All such returns must be requested within 30 days of product receipt. Credit for authorized returns will be issued at current price paid, less freight costs and reasonable restocking fees. Cancellation of orders prior to delivery are subject to the following: i) If items ordered are Leeds' stock items, the order cancellation will be accepted without charge or penalty. ii) If items ordered are special order items by Leeds and Leeds has placed a purchase order with the manufacturer, or if the items ordered include Leeds' customization of products, a reasonable fee may be charged, not to exceed an amount equal to 15% of the customer's purchase price.

LIMITED WARRANTY: Leeds warrants that its LCF Firearms & Toolmarks Comparison Microscope and its LCT Trace Evidence Comparison Microscope, will be free from defects in materials and workmanship under normal use and service for a period of five years for mechanical or optical defects and one year for electrical, electronic, or wear-related components. The warranty shall begin at installation. If any product proves to be defective within the relevant warranty period, the customer must return the defective product to Leeds.
