Program Strategy: Juvenile Prevention and Intervention Services
Program Summary: The Neighborhood Accountability Board (NAB) serves as a dedicated diversionary program designed to provide consequences and services for youth, ages 10-17, issued a juvenile civil citation in some of Duval County's highest crime zip codes incorporating Restorative Justice principles. (abbreviated)
Program Overall Status:
Month	New Hearings	Review Hearings	Closeouts	Total Active Cases
August 2016	10	4	6	43
Total YTD (October 2015-Present):	87
Successes: (abbreviated)
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Director provided training to a class of SROs at Terry Parker about Teen Court, NABs, civil citation and DATA referrals. 2. On August 10, 2016, Teen Court sponsored a Career Day for all Teen Court and NAB participants.
Challenges: (abbreviated)
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Again, referrals were low. However, now that Teen Court (and therefore NAB) is listed in the discipline matrix of the Duval County Public School Code of Conduct, we expect to get an influx of school-based referrals once the school year is in full swing.
