

David Thompson is a Board-Certified Civil Trial Attorney at Farah and Farah who deals primarily in personal injury cases focusing on auto accidents, trucking accidents, wrongful death, and general negligence. As the son of two Army parents, David moved almost yearly until settling in Jacksonville in 1995. He received his Bachelor of Arts from the University of North Florida in 2005, Juris Doctorate from Florida Coastal School of Law in 2008 and Master of Science from the University of North Florida in 2010.

Mr. Thompson has tried 89 cases to verdict. He started his career at the State Attorney's Office, 4th Judicial Circuit, handling misdemeanors and rose through the office where he was assigned to Repeat Offender Court and Homicide. In 2014, Mr. Thompson began practicing civil defense litigation as In-House Counsel for State Farm. After 4 years of defense litigation, Mr. Thompson switched to the Plaintiff side where he continues to try cases.

Mr. Thompson also is very involved in community affairs. He currently is on the Jacksonville Bar Association Board of Governors, Jacksonville Justice Association Executive Board Member, American Board of Trial Advocates Associate Member, Chair of the Board of Directors for Inspire to Rise, Inc., member of D. W. Perkins Bar Association, member of the Jacksonville Women Lawyers Association, Florida Justice Association Board Member, Jewish Community Alliance Annual Fundraiser Board Member, a member of Leadership Jacksonville Class of 2021 and a member of The Florida Bar Leadership Academy Class VIII. David also currently serves on the Florida Bar Civil Procedure Rules Committee, Liaison to the Florida Bar Board of Governors, Florida Bar Grievance Committee 4D and is Chair of the Florida Bar Leadership Academy Committee.

In any available free time, Mr. Thompson enjoys family time, grilling, watching sports, attending Jaguars games, and traveling.