The Jacksonville Re-Entry Center (JREC) is the required first stop for all ex-offenders returning to Duval County after incarceration, to ensure proper and lawful re-entry into the community. The expansion of this program will help to ensure that ex-offenders make successful transitions back into the community and do not return to a life of crime.
JREC ACTIVITIES:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Members of the Transition from Jail to Community (TJC) team from the National Institute of Corrections and the Urban Institute made their first site visit to JSO and JREC. To learn about TJC model: www.urban.org/projects/tjc/toolkit/ • Wells Fargo Bank representative William McClendon presented financial budgeting to JREC staff and will begin facilitating financial literacy classes bi-monthly to JREC clients. • Two staff from Family Support Services (FSS) working on the Incarcerated Parent mentoring grant are now housed at JREC and will be working with JREC eligible incarcerated parents three months prior to release. Program Successes:

1. B. Allen: Ms. Allen was determined to successfully complete her probation and made it her priority to re-enroll at Florida Career College to complete her course work in cosmetology. She has been working closely with her PRIDE counselor as well. She is currently just a few credits away from earning her Cosmetology license. Ms. Allen has been a model JREC client and has completed all of her re-entry goals that were established.
2. T. Lewis is a success story due to her perseverance. She was released last August and from day one she was eager to start her life over. She was in compliance each week with her job search and returning the used bus passes. She attended the Career Development Orientation at JREC and found employment through the JREC employment specialist, Ms. Zeigler, at Beauty Max.
Ms. Zeigler reported that Ms. Lewis was doing a magnificent job and was very successful in sales. She is also very well thought of by the management team as a team player and a self-motivated person. She has maintained her job, saved her money and is making plans to move into a new apartment. We congratulate Ms. Lewis.

- Assign terms of and conditions of program participation that complement any state sanctioned probation or parole requirements
- Facilitate former offender’s sustained engagement in treatment, mental health and supportive health services
- Identify stable housing through JREC staff networking with several agencies and community providers that provide housing to ex-offenders such as, boarding houses, income based apartments and when needed financial assistance to secure such
- Continue to address the obstacles that make it difficult for ex-offenders to obtain and retain employment at a living-wage level
- Provide opportunities for inmates exiting prison or jail to obtain appropriate forms of identification;

Case Management -Reentry Transition Plans: In coordination with State of Florida, Department of Corrections facilities, the JREC Resource Specialists will develop a reentry plan for those meeting the criteria which states clients are defined as offenders who were residing in Jacksonville, sentenced in Jacksonville and are returning to Jacksonville upon release from incarceration.

Facilitate Transportation: The JREC provides a limited number of bus tickets for ex-offenders who are seeking employment.

Parole/Probation Coordination: Probation officers and resource specialists will work hand-in-hand to provide intensive, individualized assistance needed by many of the ex-offenders.
