Successes: October 2012 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Team Up celebration National Lights on Afterschool event on October 18th. The students built a "Bridge of Knowledge" Bridge as part of the engineering component of S.T.E.A.M. Information was distributed to parents, school administration and the community about how important and beneficial Afterschool Programs are to our community. The students learned about the different ships such as the Titanic and have begun building their own ship as their next big project. • Team Up Enrichment Staff (A Paraprofessional) received a promotion as a Teacher at Susie E. Tolbert. • Collaboration with other agency Team Up programs have increased. (A.L. Lewis Center; Andre Robinson, Justina Elementary; ES PAL) TU hosts flag football competitions. • Twelve students earned the opportunity to attend a Jaguar Game this Sunday (11/4) as part of the Honor Rows Program offered through the Jaguar Foundation. HR students took an educational Field Trip to the Farmers Market to learn about nutritional vegetables, fruit, grains, nuts, etc. As an extension of the garden program we have implemented. • Community Service Project: Students delivered a poster/banner for Breast Cancer Awareness Month to Robert E. Lee High School for their sports event. • Program Manager invited to be on School Parent Advisory Committee.
Challenges: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Budget reduced, however enrollment remains the same. PAL is working with the School Administrative staff to ensure we remain in ratio and exceed our ADA.
