

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS: Jacksonville is a sprawling city that celebrates its diversity. A strong community that unites us all contributes to the development of children and families, promotes safety and well-being, and builds resilience and pride in our hometown; and

WHEREAS: Got Your 6 Female Veteran Support Services (FVSS), Inc., a local nonprofit dedicated to assisting female veterans with the transition to civilian life, promotes the value of offering support to those in need. The organization helps veterans fulfill their basic needs to regain their footing and claim a place in their community; and

WHEREAS: The 40 and Older Club started in 2009 with a goal to raise funds to support less fortunate children and families in Jacksonville; and

WHEREAS: Got Your 6 FVSS is teaming with the 40 and Older Club for its third Community Outreach & Wellness Fair on February 24; and

WHEREAS: This free event brings the community together, distributing food from Farm Share, offering haircuts, and providing a day of fun for families in need; and

WHEREAS: Such events support a flourishing community and contribute to the well-being of Jacksonville as a whole.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, LENNY CURRY, by virtue of the authority vested in me as mayor of Jacksonville, Florida, do hereby recognize the

on February 24, 2018, in Jacksonville and encourage all citizens to support efforts to build a strong, united community.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, this 15th day of February in the year Two Thousand 18
