

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS: The Bolles School varsity girls soccer team capped off a 21-win season with a shutout victory against West Palm Beach Oxbridge Academy in the class 2A state championship on February 21; and

WHEREAS: In the championship, the Bulldogs scored four unanswered goals: one by sophomore midfielder Avery Patterson, two by senior midfielder Ariana Munoz, and one by senior defender Aunikah King. Sophomore striker Olivia Candelino – the Bulldogs’ season leader in goals, assists and shots – notched a few more assists and attempts. The Bulldogs made 23 shots on the goal to the ThunderWolves’ 10; and

WHEREAS: Throughout the 2017-18 season, the Bulldogs allowed just 34 goals by opponents to its 108 scored; and

WHEREAS: This championship is Bolles’ seventh girls soccer title, the fourth-highest number of titles in Florida High School Athletic Association history. The 2017-18 season championship is the fourth championship win for coach Matt Tracy; and

WHEREAS: For its victorious season, the City of Jacksonville honors the Bolles varsity girls soccer team.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, LENNY CURRY, by virtue of the authority vested in me as mayor of Jacksonville, Florida, do hereby celebrate and congratulate

FLORIDA STATE CHAMPIONS: THE BOLLES SCHOOL
VARSITY GIRLS SOCCER

and encourage all citizens to join me in recognizing the players and coaches for their consistently outstanding success.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, this 1st day of March in the year Two Thousand 18

Lenny Curry

MAYOR

CITY OF JACKSONVILLE, FLORIDA