

ONE CITY. ONE JACKSONVILLE.

WHEREAS: Jacksonville citizens of all abilities deserve equal access to employment opportunities. Inclusive and productive workforces are built on the strengths and abilities of all; and

WHEREAS: The City of Jacksonville’s Disabled Services Division works year-round to raise awareness of the needs of citizens with disabilities, including providing support for transportation, housing, accessibility, discrimination, and employment needs; and

WHEREAS: Each October, Disabled Services and the City of Jacksonville join the U.S. Department of Labor’s Office of Disability Employment Policy to observe National Disability Employment Awareness Month; and

WHEREAS: Among the activities and events Disabled Services will host during the month is the 9th Annual ADA Symposium on October 14, 2020 to provide training pertaining to ADA Accessibility Standards and inclusive hiring practices; and

WHEREAS: The City of Jacksonville reaffirms the value and talent those with disabilities add to our workplaces and communities and remains committed to promoting an inclusive community in accordance with our mission for One City. One Jacksonville.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, LENNY CURRY, by virtue of the authority vested in me as mayor of Jacksonville, Florida, do hereby proclaim October 2020 as in Jacksonville and encourage all citizens to join me in celebrating the contributions of the diverse members of our workforce and urge local employers to empower people with disabilities to pursue employment opportunities with their companies.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, this 1st day of October in the year Two Thousand Twenty

Lenny Curry
