

PROCLAMATION

ONE CITY. ONE JACKSONVILLE.

WHEREAS: Jacksonville is proud to host an array of citizens from diverse ethnic, cultural, and racial backgrounds. One group that has been growing in recent decades is our Hispanic population; and

WHEREAS: Currently, more than 96,000 individuals who identify as Hispanic or Latino live in Duval County, making up over 10% of the county's population. That is a 2.8% increase in this population since 2010; and

WHEREAS: Jacksonville is proud to host a vibrant and thriving Hispanic and Latino-owned business community;

WHEREAS: In conjunction with Hispanic Heritage Month, Jacksonville celebrates the local Latino business community and their economic contributions to the community.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, LENNY CURRY, by virtue of the authority vested in me as mayor of Jacksonville, Florida, do hereby proclaim September 14, 2022 as

SUPPORT LATINO BUSINESS DAY

in Jacksonville and encourage all citizens to celebrate the significant economic contributions Latino-owned businesses make, the jobs they help create, and the positive impact they bring to our community and beyond.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, this 19th Day of Aug. in the year
Two Thousand and Twenty-Two
