

PROCLAMATION

ONE CITY. ONE JACKSONVILLE.

WHEREAS: Public works professionals focus on infrastructure, facilities and services that are of vital importance to sustainable and resilient communities and to the public health, high quality of life and well-being of the residents and visitors of Jacksonville; and

WHEREAS: Each day, citizens depend on public works services and personnel for streets that are safe for vehicular and pedestrian traffic; effective stormwater management to reduce flooding and pollution of our natural waterways; well-maintained public buildings and facilities to support and enhance our quality of life; and efficient solid waste collection to keep our community clean; and

WHEREAS: It is in the public interest for citizens, civic leaders, and children in Jacksonville to gain knowledge of and to maintain an ongoing interest and understanding of the importance of public works and public works programs in our community; and

WHEREAS: The year 2022 marks the 62nd annual National Public Works Week sponsored by the American Public Works Association, and this year's theme, "Ready and Resilient," recognizes the dedication of public works professionals to be ready to serve their communities and resilient in the face of challenges.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, LENNY CURRY, by virtue of the authority vested in me as mayor of Jacksonville, Florida, do hereby proclaim May 15-21, 2022 as in Jacksonville and encourage all citizens to pay tribute to our public works professionals, engineers, managers, and employees and to recognize the substantial contributions they make to protecting our health, safety, and quality of life.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, this 6th day in May in the year Two Thousand and Twenty-Two

MAYOR
