

PROCLAMATION

ONE CITY. ONE JACKSONVILLE.

WHEREAS: The National Contract Management Association (NCMA) is a non-profit professional association that was established on May 19, 1959 and now has over 20,000 members worldwide; and

WHEREAS: The NCMA encourages ethical behavior, educates and informs its members and their clients, and promotes professional relationships between contract managers; and

WHEREAS: The NCMA Jacksonville Chapter recently celebrated its 40th anniversary; its more than 140 members include federal employees, federal contractors, vendors, and suppliers, commercial contractors, consultants, attorneys, and retirees living within a 150-mile radius of Jacksonville in Northeast Florida and Southeast Georgia; one third of the membership actually reside well beyond that radius; and

WHEREAS: In four of the past five years - 2018, 2019, 2020, and 2021 – the NCMA Jacksonville Chapter earned national honors as the Outstanding Medium-sized Chapter and continues to lead the way with innovative business practices, education, and training for local contract managers. Chapter leaders won National Individual Volunteer of the Year honors in 2018, 2019, 2020, and 2022.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, LENNY CURRY, by virtue of the authority vested in me as mayor of Jacksonville, Florida, do hereby proclaim May 2023 as in Jacksonville and encourage all citizens to recognize and salute the important contributions of contract managers across our State and around our Nation.

NATIONAL CONTRACT MANAGEMENT ASSOCIATION MONTH

IN WITNESS THEREOF, this 27th Day of March in the year
Two Thousand and Twenty-Three.

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Lenny Curry".

MAYOR