

PROCLAMATION

ONE CITY. ONE JACKSONVILLE.

WHEREAS: Americans are served every single day by public servants at the federal, state, county, and city levels. These individuals show up every day to do the work that keeps our city, state, and nation running; and

WHEREAS: Many public servants, including military personnel, police officers, firefighters, border patrol officers, embassy employees, health care professionals and others, risk their lives each day in service to the people of the United States and around the world; and

WHEREAS: Public servants play a crucial role in providing services of all types to citizens. They ensure schools are operating, building codes are maintained, those who commit crimes are held accountable, families in need have access to financial and social support, and much more; and

WHEREAS: Without these public servants at every level, continuity would be impossible in a democracy that regularly changes its leaders and elected officials; and

WHEREAS: The City of Jacksonville recognizes not only the thousands of public servants who keep it running, but the thousands more who contribute to the broader scope, ensuring the needs of every citizen are heard and met.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, LENNY CURRY, by virtue of the authority vested in me as mayor of Jacksonville, Florida, do hereby recognize May 7 – 13, 2023 as the

PUBLIC SERVICE RECOGNITION WEEK

in Jacksonville and encourage all citizens to recognize the numerous contributions public servants make every day to the people of Jacksonville.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, this 25th Day of April in the year
Two Thousand and Twenty-Three.

MAYOR

CITY OF JACKSONVILLE, FLORIDA
